Read This List Carefully, and. When You Find What You Want, Make up Your Mind to Have It.

For several months past we have been negotiating with various parties with a view of purchasing from them choice and acceptable articles, suitable for gifts to our subscriber; at the time of the colargement and change of name of this paper; and we now have the pleasure of announcing that we have perfected arrangements whereby we are enabled to offer

The Most Attractive Inducements to Subscribers Ever Given By Any Paper In the United States!

THE COUNTY PAPER IS now the Largest, the Handsomest and the Best paper published in the State outside of the large cities; it is all that a county paper should be; we can say without vanity that it is a credit to Holt county; and every citizen of the county, without regard to politics or religion, should feel a personal interest in mercasing its circulation,-thereby enabling its publishers to maintain it at its present high standard and to add such other improvements as may from time to time suggest themselves. Every copy of this paper which goes abroad will instantly attract the attention of all who see it; and its | and No. 3. beauty, its size, and the excellence of its reading matter will advertise the fact that in this portion of the West there are intelligent people, who have splendid schools and churches and cosy homes, surrounded by orchards laden with choicest truits, and fields of fine wheat and corn, and pastures in which roam fat cautie and hogs .- with soils of unsurpassed tertility and a climite famed for its healthfulness,-in whose midst thousands more of good people, who are now wearing away their lives on the bleak hillsides of the East, can find a welcome and obtain homes of their own for a mere nominal sum. To attract to us good citizens from other States will be one of the main aims of THE COUNTY PAPER, and in this work it hopes to be largely aided by its subscribers. Our citizens are composed of people from aimost ever; State in the Union, and every subscriber to THE COUNTY PAPER should send it each week, after rending it, to some friend in the State whence he came, whom he thinks would be likely attracted here to find a home.

Our first aim, however, is to increase our subscription list at home until THE COUNTY PAPER is a welcome visitor to every fireside in Holt county. There are Twenty-five Hundred people in the county who ought to take THE COUNTY page illustrations. Cloth binding in and yet which will set you to thinking. PAPER, but who do not. We desire to appeal to each one of these people, in order to show him that it is to his interest to take the paper. The plea of poverty will not avail as an excuse for not doing so, as the inducements offered below are so liberal that, in many cases, the subscriber not Louly gets THE COUNTY PAPER for nothing, but is actually paid to take it. How we can attord to make these gifts does not concern the general public. "Never look a gift horse in the mouth" is a saying as old as it is wise. Let it saffice that we get everything honestly and that we are willing to share our good fortune, with our subscribers.

Below will be found a list of the Gifts we offer to every subscriber who pays Two Dollars in advance for a year's subscription to Tile; County PAPER. Some of the Gifts are for old subscribers who renew; others are for new subscribers. A full explanation of how the Gifts are awarded will be found at the and more modern editions, selected where commentators have differed as to the bottom of the List of Gifts.

NO. 9.

"The Perfect Shakespeare"

To any subscriber, new or old, who will pay us $3 50, each in advance, we will send THE COUNTY PAPER one year and also present him with a copy of The Perfect Shakespeare. This edition of Shakespeare's works is by far the best and most complete ever issued. It is carefully prepared from the earliest sense of obscure or doubtful passages, from those readings which the at les critics believe to be the most Shakespearean and best suited to a popular edition. Illustrated with 30 Large Engravings, designed by John Conen, the celebrated artist and engraver, and a steel portrait of Shakespeare.

We have used the term "Perfect" as applicable to this edition, and any one that will examine it will see that it well merits the title; and, indeed, is the only edition that fully deserves the title of "Perfect." There are numerous editions of this wonderful writer's works, got up in all tyles, and at every price. But, unfortunately, they are all more or less faul-From some editions many of the strongest passages are omitted in deternce to squeamish namby-pambyism. In other editions many scenes are transposed, till the plays are made, like Joseph's coat, a thing "of shreds and pased, thirde plays are made, the cosepie coat, a thing for shreds and patches." But in this Edition, the "Perfect" Shakespeare, all the Poems—sil the Plays—all the Characters—all the Language—are given unabridged, clear and perfect as they originally sprang from the august brow of this Jove of Poets-the sublime Shockspeare. It is not necessary at this late day to say aught in praise of Shakespeare's works; for they are universally admitted to be the grandest efforts of any human mind. Works that have been enlogized by Ben. Johnson, by Dryden, by Addison, by Milton (Prince of Poets.) who has beautifully written of him as needs no enlogy from meaner men. They present an epitome of all human passions, motives, actions and expressions. None are too high, none too low to miss being instructed as well as delighted by the plays and poetry of Shakespeare. The Perfect Shakespeare edition. Every word of the original is in it. It is printed from new, clear, easily-read type. It is a fine, large, .................. beindsome book-an ornament to any parlor table. It is embellished with many striking illustrations. The "Pertect" Shakespeare, in addition to the whole of S akespeare's Comedies, Histories, Tragedies and Poems—all that he ever ote--contains the full text of Shakespeare's Will as recorded in the office of the Pigrogative Court of Canterbury, and also a complete explanatory glossary of all the unusal words or phrases occurring in his works, making one Handsome Quarto Volume, bound in the best English cioth, with artistic designs in black and gold on back and side. The size of the book is 11 1-2 inches high, 9 inches wide, 1 1 2 inches thick, and weigh 3 pounds. Aspecimen copy can be seen at the office of the editor THE COUNTY PAPER.

When this edition was first issued it was sold at seven Dollars a copy; but we have made a rangements where by we can give it away to our subscribers in the manner above mentioned. De Any one who wants to procure the Perfect Shakespeare without the payment of any cash, can do so by names of seven new subscribers, at two Dollars each, cash in advance These new subscribers will be given premiums the same as other new subscribers.

> NO. 10. Beautiful Jewelry Casket.

Every new subscriber to The Courty Paper who pays Two Dollars in advance for a year's subscription, will be presented with the following choice collection of seeds, embracing all the popular varieties and being sufficient to furnish at the differest kinds of vegetables usually wanted by any family. new subscriber to The County Paper gets seeds which are worth as much as good as are worn by many ladies who hold high heads in the fashionable world he pays for a year's subscription. The articles for gentlemen's wear are also nobby and Januty and stylish. No one, after examining this jewelry, would believe it possible for us to furnish such an amount of really handsome jewelry for the mere trifle at which we offer it in connection with THE COUNTY PAPER; yet we do it, and do it honestly. Some idea of how we struck this bonanza may be gathered from the following statement: About two years ago a firm of jewelry manufacturers in Providence, Rhode Island, received as order from a prominent New York firm of manufacture 200,000 of these Caskets, each containing twenty pieces of jewelry. After disposing of about 100,000 of the Caskets, which sold as rapidly as they could be thrown on the market, the New York fire was overtaken with financial difficulties and were unable to take the remainder. This made it necessary to dispose of them at any sacrifice, and we have secured a few of them for the subscribers to THE COUNTY PAPER.

Each of these new subscribers will be entitled to the gifts they choose, the same as other new subscribers.

> NO. 11. The Peoples' Encyclopedia.

To any subscriber, new or old, who will pay us $8.50, each is advance, will send THE COUNTY PAPER One year and present a set set of Chambers' Encyclopædia, in Fifteen Volumes of about 800 pages each, fine type, closely but clearly printed, and handsomely and substantially bound in cloth. This is the publication (with the exception of the American Additions) which has been so extensively advertised for the past year under the title of Library of Universal Knowledge. It is a full and complete reprint of the Edinburg, Scotland, 1888 edition of Chambers's Encyclopaedia. When, about ten months ago, the American Book Exchange amounced their intention of publishing this immense work in fifteen volumes and selling them at Fifty Cents a Volume, people were incredulous and it took several months to convince the public that there was no humbug or swindle about it. The new price was so tremendously lower (being less than one-third of the old price) than the price at which it had formerly been sold, that people could not believe it possible that they could be manufactured for the price named. When the first volume made its appearsace people examined it closely, tound it to be well and clearly printed on thin but strong paper, and strongly and substantially bound in durable cloth. Still they shook their heads and doubted and predicted that the publishers would go into bankruptcy before they finished the fifteen volumes. But steadily every two or three weeks a new volume made its appearance, and, as time wore on, people began to gain confidence, the sales increased rapidly toward the last, until now the fifteen volumes are finished and are on our table before us as we write. Notwithstanding the rapidity with which they were rushed through the press there was no slighting of the work, and every volume is a model of mechanical execution. Upwards of one hundred thousand copies have now been sold, and the publishers say that this is but the beginning, as they intend to sell a million copies. Nor is this improvable. These books constitute a library in themselves. Whether a man has other books or not, he should have these, for they contain information upon almost every subject within the range of human knewledge; and, as the subjects are alphanetically arranged, any of them can be turned to in a moment. Formerly the possession of an Encyclopaedia like that of Chambers's or Appleton's was reserved for only the wealthy; but since the daring innovation of the Literary Revolution in publishing Chambers's Encyclopaedia in fifteen volumes at Fifty Cents a volume (with ten cents a volume added for postage to those who cannot call for them at the publication office) almost any man can become the owner of these coveted books. The COUNTY PAPER most carnestly wishes that every family in Holt county may have a set of these volumes; and it is proud and happy that it has an opportunity to offer them to its subscribers at a price considerably lower than is charged by the publishers. To demonstrate: The very lowest price in cash at which these books can be bought of the publishers in New York is Fifty Cents per volume -making seven and a half dollars for the fifteen volumes. To this price persons outside of New York city must add the cost of sending them by mail, which is ten cents a volume. This amounts to one and a hair dollars,making the total cost of the Encyclopaedia, to persons in Holt county, Nine Dollars. And this is the very lowest price at which they can be bought. by availing ourselves of a very liberal offer made us by the publishers, whereby we are permitted to pay a considerable portion in advertising, we are able to offer the Encyclopaedia and a year's subscription to THE COUNTY PAPER for Fifty Cents less than any one else would have to pay for the Encyclopaedia alone! In other words, we furnish the Encyclopaedia and THE COUNTY PAPER one year, for only Eight-and-a-half Dollars, which is Fifty Cents less than the lowest cash price of the Encyclopaedia, postage added. It is not necessary to allude further to this branch of the subject; every reader will instantly see the point, and we hope that hundreds of them will avail themselves of this opportunity to procure books so essential to every intelligent househol must add one other thought-though we have already said so much. The editor of The County Paper owns both Appletons's Cyclopaedia and Chambers's Encyclopaedia. The tormer is in sixteen volumes and cost him ninetysix dollars. The latter is in fitteen volumes and cost him nine dollars. Yet if he were forced to give up one or the other he would keep Chambers's! It contains more reading matter than Appleton's; the subjects are treated more intelligibly; the print is just as clear; and, the volumes weighing so much less, are vastly more comfortable to handle. IF Any one who would like to get the above described Chambers's Encyopacdia without the payment of any cash whatever, can do so by bringing us the names of thirty new subscribers, at Two Dollars each, cash. Each of these utsears will be entitled to a gift the same as other new subscribers.

Will attend to all legal furthess intensed to utsears to all the courts of Northwest Missouri. That for said a large number of choice business law. new subscribers will be entitled to a gift the same as other new subscribers.

An Elegant Top Buggy.

For Eighty-Five Dollars, cash in advance, we will send THE COUNTY PAPER one year and also present the subscriber with his choice of three different styles of Top Buggles – a picture of one of which is shown elsewhere—the subscriber to oay freight from Cincumati, Ohio. Pictures of the other two styles can be seen at the office of THE COUNTY PAPER. These Buggles are manufactured by T. T. Ha)dock, the celebrated Cincinnati manufacturer, and the lowest cash price at the manufactory is $110 for each. It will thus be seen that we furnish them for $25 less than they can possibly be bought for, and throw in a year's subscription to THE COUNTY PAPER besides. Any one who wants a good buggy will never have a better opportunity than this to secure it for so little money. All these Buggies have Leather Quarters; Rubber Roof and Curtains; Trimmed in Leather or Bine Cloth, as desired; Sarvan Patent Wheels, Best Springs and Axles. In short, they are made for service as well as display, and will last well and give satisfaction. The manufacturer gives a written Warrant with each Buggy that if a wheel, spring or axle breaks within one year from date of purchase, on account of bad material, it can be returned to him and he will send a new one.

Take Particular Notice.

All the books offered as Gifts by THE COUNTY PAPER will be ordered by us rom the publishers from time to time as we may have call for them. We shall probably order about every two weeks. This plan is rendered necessary in order to prevent us from accumulating books which our subscribers do not want. We have no means of judging in advance what broks they will select. Those suberribers who select books as gifts will inform us or our agents what books they want, at the time they pay their subscriptions, and if we do not have them on hand we will send for them in our next order and forward them to the subscribers as soon as we receive them.

Concluding Appeal.

Now, Good People of Holt and neighboring counties, The County Paper is before you. You see what it is and it speaks for itself. We promised that it should be the Largest, the Handsomest, and the Best County Paper in the State. With becoming modesty, we claim that we have fulfilled our promise. No citizen of Holt county will be ashamed to send The County Paper abroad as as index of the intelligence of our people. We confess that we are proud of this paper, and we believe our pride will be shared by all our subscribers.

But not only do we furnish our readers the best county paper in the State: we also offer the most liberal Gifts to subscribers ever presented by any paper in the United States, so far as our knowledge extends. Our object in this is to largely swell our subscription list. We want more subscribers - a GREAT MANY more and we want our present subscribers to aid us in getting them. We ought to have a thous and more subscribers in Holt county, and we can secure them if our present subscribers will only aid us by showing the paper to their neighbors and tolling them of the pleasure they derive every week from reading it. We hereby appoint every one of our subscribers our agent, and we urge each one to interest himself or herself in our behalf. Just think of this: if each of our subscribers will send us just one name we will have nearly three thousand subscribers; and then we can-and will-make THE COUNTY PAPER still better than it now is,vastly more so. Though we know our subscribers feel kindly toward us, we stimulate their good will by offering them inducements, in the shape of valuable gifts, for all they do fer us. These Gifts are so various that, among them all, no one can fail to find just what he or she may want. We offer Gifts for securing all the way from one subscriber up to fifty, and ranging in value from 25 cents up to $110. Good Friends, in helping us you also help yourselves. The more subscribers you get for us, the better we will make the paper for you. And there is not a subscriber on our list who cannot send us at least one new name. And "every little helps " If enough subscribers will send us new names to make an average of one same from each, we will be satisfied. Read over carefully the foregoing list of Gif's; and if you find the name of some hing you want which an be had by sec = ring a few subscribers for us, make up your minds to have it and go to work and get it. It will take very little trouble. No one can look through THE COUNTY PAPER without being pleased with it; and when the further inducement is held out that every subscriber is allowed his choice of a number of valuable gifts, there is not one intelligent man out of twenty who will refuse to
